

WHO ARE YOU?

What is it that is unique about you and should be reflected in your plans for the future? Check out these resources:

Idaho Career Information System

This provides an interest inventory (IDEAS Assessment), a skills assessment and a work values sort. Try all three for a well-rounded picture of yourself.

www.idahocis.org

Learning Style Quiz

Find out how you learn best and study tips for your style.

www.vark-learn.com/english/index.asp

Keirsey Temperament and Character Web Site

This site has the Keirsey Temperament Sorter questionnaire and descriptions of the personality temperaments.

www.keirsey.com

Career Focus 2000

This takes about 20 minutes to complete. Very comprehensive. Gives a nice chart showing your interests and suggestions for further steps to take.

www.iccweb.com/careerfocus/index.asp

The Career Key

This site asks questions about abilities and interests. It gives listings of various types of jobs reported in Holland codes.

www.careerkey.org

Princeton Review

This provides a career profile based on a five minute survey.

www.princetonreview.com/default.asp?uidbadge=%07

Career Path

This site provides assistance with career tests, advice and resources.

www.careerpath.com